A CROSS BABY.—Nothing is so conducive to a man's remaining a bachelor as stopping for one night at the house of a married friend and being kept awake for five or six hours by the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make them well and smiling. Young men, remember this.—Ad.

CHEATED THE CORNER.—An unknown man was found in the reservoir near the furnace, at 1 o'clock morning, by the night-watchman. He was promptly taken from his cool resting-place, and found to still be possessed of that mysterious condition of the human body—life. He is now sleeping in a chair behind a saloon stove.

PILOT KNOB, Feb. 14. REPORTER.

MARRIED.—At the residence of David Myers, Esq., in Iron County, on Wednesday evening, February 8th, 1882, by Rev. C. E. Purucker, of De Soto, JEDSON CHAMBERS, Esq., to Miss EMMA HAMPTON—all of Iron County, Mo.

The parties principal have our best wishes, and we trust that each succeeding year will prove that one of the luckiest as well as the happiest days of their lives was that on which they swore to be all in all to each other.

A BIG FIND.—About ten days ago, Christian Emmerling, engineer at the Pilot Knob furnace, discovered a vein of ore near the company's office. Men were set to work on it, and at this time a vein of ten feet of solid ore has been developed. It is one of the biggest things in connection with the history of the company. For thirty years people have walked and worked over the spot without suspecting the richness that lay under their feet.

Mr. Frank L. Ferguson and Miss Mattie M. Ward, of Pemiscot county, were married on the 24th of January, 1882, at Gayoso. Miss Ward is the youngest daughter of the late Dr. Hardin M. Ward and a niece of Col. Meser Ward of this place.—Charleston Enterprise.

Miss Mattie was for two years enrolled as a pupil at the Arcadia Convent, and while there won many friends. We extend our congratulations, and wish the young couple a happy and prosperous journey through life.

The Valley had two mites of femininity added to its population since the publication of last week's issue (one Thursday, and the other Sunday). Mr. Edgar being the younger in family experience, doesn't conceal his exultations to so great an extent as does the father in the other case, perhaps; but "way down in his boots" we'll bet W. T. Gay, Esq., feels as gallantly happy as any other man ever did, under similar circumstances.

Trains on the I. M. R. R. still are somewhat irregular, but the past week has proved a decided improvement on the several that preceded it. To an outsider the occurrences in connection with this road, since the advent of Gould and Hoxie, seem to indicate a deterioration upon the part of somebody to wreck something beside the trains. A great deal of the traffic that used to employ the I. M. R. R. now finds its way over the competing line.

Last week (Tuesday) a tramp entered A. J. Campbell's dwelling—about 4 miles south of Iron County—and stole a rifle therefrom. Coming into Iron County, he sold the weapon to Mr. J. J. Exum for twenty-five cents. Shortly afterward, Mr. Campbell made complaint before Judge Dinger, who issued a warrant for the arrest of the offender, who was immediately apprehended. Upon being confronted with Mr. Exum, the prisoner waived an examination and was lodged in jail, where he now awaits the coming of the 15th of April and Judge Thomas.

In this issue will be found the card of the new law firm of Emerson & Edgar. Our readers need scarcely be told that this makes one of the very strongest law firms in the State. Judge Emerson was for a long time, and until he resigned, one of the best Circuit Judges on the bench, and since then has maintained a proud position at the head of the bar of Southern Missouri. Mr. Edgar is a young man of fine legal ability, energetic and honorable, having for years past, ably filled the position of Prosecuting Attorney. They already have, and are sure to continue to enjoy a very large practice.

WM. HAYDEN FISHER was born in Dunklin county, Mo., on the 12th of July, 1829, and died at his home in Iron County, Mo., Feb. 10th, 1882, of spinal meningitis. He left a wife and one child, and many other friends to mourn for him. But they "sorrow not as those who have no hope." William was a good young man, in all the relations of life. With his other good qualities was combined a pious turn of mind. He had not united with the church; but had frequently expressed a wish and purpose to do so, before his last and fatal sickness. He died with words of prayer upon his lips. We have hope that he has already joined his sainted father in that healthful country where there is no more death. We deeply sympathize with his surviving companion, his pious mother, and the entire family; and commend them to God, and to the ward of His grace.

J. W. BERRYMAN.

The Clonians did not meet January 27th and February 3d on account of services held in the Presbyterian Church, but last Friday evening, February 10th, they had one of their most interesting meetings. Soon after assembling, their teacher plunged them into a study of the topics: King Egbert and his successors, Ethelwulf, Ethelbert, and Ethelred. Then they were turned back a few centuries to the fifth invasion of the Saxons, and the many important personages and events between that time and the reign of Egbert. Being unable to exhaust their topics as thoroughly as seemed desirable, they were re-assigned for the next meeting, especially the subjects, Mercia, Northumbria, Wessex, Edwin, Oswald, and Oswy, which subjects include the struggle between Paganism and Christianity, the decision of the Synod of Whitby between the Irish and the Roman Church, and the literary characters, Caedmon, Cuthbert, and Bede. The members were also instructed to continue their researches from the accession of Alfred to the reign of Canute, to be able to give a synopsis of the life of Charlemagne, and to tell something of the discovery and settlement of Iceland and Greenland; also, of the discovery of America in the early part of the eleventh century.

Master Pope Garner is home from St. Louis on a visit.

HUMBUG ADVERTISEMENTS.—The time never has been and never will be when the people of this or any other country can buy a dollar for seventy-five cents. Neither can you, dear reader, purchase an organ worth three or four hundred dollars for $60. This is all nonsense. Still we have no objection to other people doing their business just as they see fit. We are selling a good, honest made piano at $185 to $275, and a good, honest organ (not a stop) for from $45 to $475. All our goods are made upon honor, and we send to any part of the world on test trial, and if no pleasure no keeps, as the Cincinnati would say. For the past ten years we have sent both pianos and organs to every part of the world, and our instruments give the most universal satisfaction. If you give us a good instrument, one that will always last you, we shall be pleased to send you our catalogues and prices; and if you purchase one of our instruments, we will send you a copy of our catalogue and prices, and if you purchase one of our instruments, we will send you a copy of our catalogue and prices, and if you purchase one of our instruments, we will send you a copy of our catalogue and prices.

The Children's Masquerade Ball, given under the auspices of the ladies of Iron County, last Friday evening, in point of enjoyment was a grand success. By 8 o'clock the Music Hall was thronged with gay masquers intent upon enjoying themselves, and they tripped the light fantastic until the wee, sma' hours.

The valentine for selling the greatest number of tickets was won by Miss Adele Lopez, who kindly donated it to the ladies to be voted to the most popular little girl present, and was awarded to Miss Marie Rutschman, who received the largest number of votes.

The following is an imperfect list of the gay masquers and their costumes:

Miss Rosie Hughes—Jockey.

"Adele Lopez—Kate Greenway's time.
"Minnie Tetlow—Flower Girl.
"Della Davis—Morning Dawn.
"Ella Haller—Fancy costume.

"Nannie Goulding—Blue Bell.
"Dora Ake—Huntress.
"Hattie Peck—Shepherdess.
"Lillie Tetlow—Plantation Darkey.

Among the boys were the following:

ANNAPOLIS, Mo., Feb. 10th, 1882.

Ed. Register.—As this place is unrepresented in your columns, I will, with your indulgence, play the roll of reporter—for a short time, at least.

The business interests of this locality, both present and prospective, are flattering to all classes; plenty of work and seemingly plenty of willing hands to do it.

The mill firm of Carr, Towel & May is doing a prosperous business, having in operation three saw mills and one planing mill. They are making daily shipments to all parts of the country. Their extensive trade and increasing demand for their products are unmistakable evidences of their fairness and promptness in their dealings.

The Peckham firm has its shipping shed from this point to Kansas City, and has between 80 and 100 wood-carriers employed. J. W. Walters, Esq., weighs the 1-foot measure, and in his semi-monthly visits through the jobs, plays general havoc with inferior workmanship by said carpenters, having at times to resort to a physical test—for which he has a superior only in the person of Sullivan, the victor in the late heavy-weight prize fight near New Orleans.

One of our townsmen, a railroad employe, shows strong evidences of being smite, smit, or snuffed; but we don't know the result; it is an event of the future.

In our next—if this finds lodgement other than in the waste basket—we will tell you of some more things we know. In conclusion, we will state that the REGISTER is a welcome visitor to our sanctum.

Yours, &c., R. P. VAN WINKLE.

THE SUN.
NEW YORK, 1882.

The Sun for 1882 will make its thirtieth annual revolution under the present management, shining, as always, for big and little, mean and gracious, contented and unhappy, Republican and Democratic, depraved and virtuous, intelligent and obtuse. The Sun's light is for mankind and womankind of every sort; but its genial warmth is for the good, while it pours cold discomfort on the blistering backs of the persistently wicked.

The Sun of 1868 was a newspaper of a new kind. It discarded many of the forms, and a multitude of the superfluous words and phrases of ancient journalism. It undertook to report in a fresh, succinct, unconventional way all the news of the world, omitting no event of human interest, and commenting upon affairs with the fearlessness of absolute independence. The success of this experiment was the success of The Sun. It effected a permanent change in the style of American newspapers. Every important journal established in this country in the dozen years past has been modified and bettered by the force of the Sun's example. The Sun of 1882 will be the same outspoken, truth-telling, and interesting newspaper.

By a liberal use of the means, which an abundant prosperity affords, we shall make it better than ever before. We shall print all the news, putting it into readable shape, and making it so important, not by the traditional yardstick, but by its real interest to the people. Distance from Print and House Square is not the first consideration with The Sun. Whenever anything happens worth reporting we get the particulars, whether it happens in Brooklyn or in Bokhara.

In politics we have decided opinions; and are accustomed to express them in language that can be understood. We do not think about men and events. That habit is the only secret of The Sun's political course. The Weekly Sun gathers into eight pages the best matter of the daily press. An Agricultural Department of unequalled merit, full market report, and a liberal proportion of literary, scientific, and domestic intelligence complete The Weekly Sun, and make it the best newspaper for the farmer's household ever printed.

Who does not know and read like The Sunday Sun, each number of which is a gold-mine of interesting literature, with the best poetry of the day, prose every line worth reading, news, humor—matter enough to fill a good-sized book, and infinitely more varied and entertaining than any book—big or little. If our idea of what a newspaper should be pleases you, send for The Sun.

Our terms are as follows:
For the daily Sun, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents per month, or $7.80 a year, postage paid.
The Sunday edition of The Sun is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid. The price of The Weekly Sun, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.

THE MISSOURI REPUBLIC
PROSPECTUS.

This paper, usually called the St. Louis Republic, is published by the Missouri Republican Association, and is the only paper of its kind in the West. It is a small territory and St. Louis a mere outpost, the headquarters of a few Government officers and Indian traders. The Republic has steadily increased from a diminutive sheet, printed weekly and containing but little more than local and unimportant events, to a representative American journal, holding place in the front rank of the great newspapers of the world. Its history is the history of the West and South in all enterprises, and in all the material, political and social interests of the country. It is the exponent of the views of a class of citizens who seek to have the Government conducted upon Democratic, popular and conservative principles, and in that regard is the organ of the most intelligent and thoughtful minds of the extensive West which it circulates. It reaches a great majority of post-offices throughout Missouri, Illinois, Kansas, Iowa and Arkansas, and is disseminated more or less largely in every other State and Territory, besides going to all important points in Europe. Its various editions reach over one hundred thousand homes, counting-rooms, stores and offices; this fact growing out of a steady and uniform growth, as population has increased and mail facilities expanded. Its readers are the "home and sinew" of the country, well informed and influential.

The Republic is published by men chiefly who have grown up from boyhood in the business, and have made the printing of a newspaper the study of their lives. It is practically impossible that any event of real importance could occur anywhere in the West which it circulates and not be published in the Republic before the rising of the next sun. With the means and the purpose to publish all the news, readers of its columns will have no reason to look further for a history of the times.

To those engaged in commerce, and indeed all who buy or sell, or are concerned in what is bought and sold, the Republic will supply all necessary and desirable information so far as it can be found in the most complete and careful commercial reports from every important trade centre and stock market in the world.

These are some of the features of a concern that is known throughout the West and South as the "Old Reliable."

Subscription Prices of the Republic.

The Weekly Republic contains the cream of all the news of the Daily and Tri-Weekly editions, and is especially edited to supply the wants of country readers. In order that there can be no excuse for not having it on account of cost, we place the price at One Dollar per year.

All subscriptions are payable in advance, and discontinued at the end of time paid for.
